

Pets placed in Kennels often experience:

- Small, cramped cages
- Noisy continuous barking
- Exposure to illness
- Experience a lot of stress & confusion
- Constant commotion with numerous employees and upset pets
- Small amounts of outside time (if they allow it)
- Most pets do not eat in kennels due to high levels of stress
- Very little one on one attention
- An extra night stay due to limited pet pick up times

Benefits to in-home pet care:

- Your pet's routine will remain the same, less stress.
- 30 minutes of one on one loving attention.

- Access to call your pet-sitter to check on your pets at anytime
- Daily notes via our pet reports
- Daily brushing
- No car rides to the kennel, we come to you, again less stress for your pet
- Your home is also cared for
- Your mail, newspapers, and packages will be taken care of
- Your plants will be watered

Last but not least, your pets will be much happier and healthier!
